

Authors wanted!

Attention all Artists, Lecturers, and Researchers

Electronic media is a growing area of academic publication

Contemporary Arts Media is producer and distributor of arts related educational media. We offer over 3,500 titles of DVDs, CD-ROMS and books across all art forms and supply art education resources to academic and school libraries worldwide.

Contemporary Arts Media is looking for new resources for educational distribution.

Producing a film about your teaching and research has many advantages:

Your publications will be marketed and distributed worldwide to top universities and libraries including the U.S., U.K., Australia and Europe.

- You work will be known, cited, and registered in the educational field. Libraries will make your material available for students, artists and teachers.
- Last but not least, you will receive royalties on sales of your product.

What are these publications?

- DVDs: Documentaries, exhibitions, projects, productions, documentations, research and works in progress.
- CD-Rom's of documentation of projects, artworks, exhibition and thesis of written work.
- Interactive E-Book's of a Doctoral Thesis including illustrations, film clips, and images.

What can we offer you?

- Guidance and advice in preparing the publication.
- Assistance in editing, production, product development and design.
- Worldwide marketing to universities, schools, and libraries.
- Manage Royalties.

Please contact us with any queries. We hope to hear from you.
